

International hobby tournament

4th „Salzburger MuskeStier“

5th and 6th May 2012

Dear fencers,

for the 4th time we meet in Salzburg on May 5th and 6th for the “Salzburger MuskeStier”, to fence, have fun and enjoy a weekend among fencers!

We invite all fencers who enjoy fencing – students and non-students, beginners as well as advanced fencers. A licence is not mandatory.

We will start with foil and sabre on Saturday and épée on Sunday. The system will be dependent on the number of fencers – the idea is to have as many fun combats as possible.

On Saturday evening we will arrange for a common evening event.

Details:

Eligible fencers: All students and non-students and all hobby fencers who share the common fun to spend a fencing weekend together.

Date: 5th and 6th May 2012

Location: Salzburger Fechtzentrum
Johann-Brunauer-Straße 4, 5020 Salzburg

The tournament will take place in the gym halls upstairs of the fencing hall. This year, three gym halls will be used!

4th „Salzburger MuskeStier“

5th and 6th May 2012

Referee: When registering per mail, please indicate if you are able to provide any referees or if any fencers are able to or want to help judge the combats.

System: Depending on the number of participants. Mixed individual-tournament.

Equipment: According to the FIE rules.

Exception: A lame bin is NOT required for foil fencing.

Catering: A “flatrate-buffet” is available during the whole tournament. For € 5,- coffee, cake, fruits, beverages, hot sausages, etc. are provided.

Note: Organisers don't assume liability. The gym hall can only be entered with sport shoes. Smoking is not allowed inside the buildings. Sufficient parking spaces are available in front of the gym hall.

Evening event: Beside the main event, we want all fencers to spend a fun weekend together, to meet new people and share experiences. Therefore, a common evening activity is planned in Mozarts Hometown Salzburg on Saturday Evening.

Further details will follow in due time.

Accommodation: Besides booking.com and other sites, we recommend the official accommodation website of the city of Salzburg:
